

It's easy to make sure you have these photo tips with you while you're taking photos. Just cut around the border and tape, staple, or glue the tips to 3" x 5" note cards. Feel free to share them with other agents.

Real Estate Property Photo Checklist

- 1. Are there distractions in the shot?
- 2. Does this shot fill the frame?
- 3. Is this room interesting enough for detail shots?
- 4. Have I removed clutter from this room?
- 5. Did I make sure I'm not shooting into bright light?
- 6. Should I use a tripod for this shot or a better angle?
- 7. Did I get all of the unique details?

Free Help for Real Estate Agents.com

Real Estate Property Photo Checklist

- 1. Are there distractions in the shot?
- 2. Does this shot fill the frame?
- 3. Is this room interesting enough for detail shots?
- 4. Have I removed clutter from this room?
- 5. Did I make sure I'm not shooting into bright light?
- 6. Should I use a tripod for this shot or a better angle?
- 7. Did I get all of the unique details?

Free Help for Real Estate Agents.com

Real Estate Property Photo Checklist

- 1. Are there distractions in the shot?
- 2. Does this shot fill the frame?
- 3. Is this room interesting enough for detail shots?
- 4. Have I removed clutter from this room?
- 5. Did I make sure I'm not shooting into bright light?
- 6. Should I use a tripod for this shot or a better angle?
- 7. Did I get all of the unique details?

Free Help for Real Estate Agents.com

